

Third Grade Report Card – Parent Support VISUAL ARTS

Indicator	Standard	T1	T2	T3
Recognize that the elements and principles of art are a part of everyday life	1.1.2.D.1 The basic elements of art and principles of design govern art creation and composition.	Identify elements of art in their environment: color, line, shape, form, value, texture, space. Identify principles of art in their environment: composition, balance, unity, emphasis, repetition and pattern.	Describe how artists use the elements and principles to express their ideas and communicate meaning in master artworks.	When creating their own artworks, students will apply the elements and principles to express their own ideas and meanings.
Identifies how artists and artworks reflect and are affected by past and present culture	1.2.5.A.1 Art and culture reflect and affect each other. 1.2.5.A.3 Sometimes the contributions of an individual artist can influence a generation of artists and signal the beginning of a new art genre.	Recognize works of visual art as a reflection of societal values and beliefs.	Recognize that artist respond and react to culture through their artworks.	Recognize that artists make important contributions to history and culture.
Able to work individually and collaboratively to create meaningful works of art	1.3.5.D.1 The elements of art and principles of design can be applied in an infinite number of ways to express personal responses to creative problems.	-Work alone or collaboratively to create works of art.	-Work alone or collaboratively to create works of art. -Observe the unique ways each artist uses the the elements and principles in their own work.	-Work alone or collaboratively to create works of art. -Apply elements and principles of art in diverse and personally meaningful ways.

Uses critique positively as a tool to improve or inspire art making	1.4.5.A.3 Criteria for determining the aesthetic merits of artwork vary according to context. Understanding the relationship between compositional design and genre provides the foundation for making value judgments about the arts.	-Evaluate and discuss ideas communicated in artworks.	-Find inspiration to improve and develop their work as a result of helpful discussion.	-Begin to use evaluative tools to assess the merits of their own and others artworks.
--	---	--	---	--